

Report on “Frames of Justice: National Youth Reel and Short Film Competition”

Pursuant to the letter received from the District Legal Services Authority Chamba, Government College Bharmour organized an awareness programme to promote participation in the “Frames of Justice: National Youth Reel and Short Film Competition”, an initiative of the National Legal Services Authority (NALSA).

The programme was addressed by Mr. Naresh Kumar, Assistant Professor of Political Science and the Member of the District Legal Services Authority, SAMVAD Unit, Chamba. In his lecture, he elaborated on the role and functions of NALSA, highlighting its objective of providing free and competent legal services to the weaker and marginalized sections of society. He also discussed various initiatives such as legal aid services, Lok Adalats, and legal literacy programmes aimed at ensuring access to justice for all.

He informed students about the objectives, themes, and guidelines of the “Frames of Justice” competition and encouraged them to actively participate by creating innovative reels and short films focusing on justice, equality, constitutional values, and legal empowerment. He emphasized the importance of youth involvement in promoting legal awareness and strengthening the justice delivery system through creative and responsible use of digital platforms.

The students participated enthusiastically in the interactive session and expressed keen interest in contributing to the competition. The programme concluded successfully, reaffirming the institution’s commitment to fostering legal literacy and encouraging meaningful student engagement in initiatives related to justice and social responsibility.
